

To help you sell, buy or lease real estate, REALTORS[®], brokerages and real estate boards need to collect, use and disclose some of your personal information. This brochure provides you with information about, and obtains your consent to, such information handling practices.

DEFINITIONS

Personal Information means any identifiable information about you, including your name, address, phone number, financial information and may include information about your property (such as listing and selling price, lease rate, listing term, etc.).

A REALTOR[®] is a member of a real estate board, the British Columbia Real Estate Association (BCREA) and of The Canadian Real Estate Association (CREA). REALTORS[®] in BC are licensed under the Real Estate Services Act. Brokerage refers to the real estate company where your REALTOR[®] is licensed. The boards are the real estate boards of which the brokerage and the REALTOR[®] are members. REALTORS[®] provide MLS[®] services, which are professional services to effect the purchase and sale of real estate as part of a co-operative selling system, otherwise known as an MLS[®] System. A MLS[®] System is a member-to-member cooperative selling system for the purchase, sale or lease of real estate that is owned or controlled by a board, includes an inventory of listings of participating REALTORS[®], and ensures a certain level of accuracy of information, professionalism, and cooperation amongst REALTOR[®] members.

How is my personal information collected?

Most personal information will be collected directly from you through the contracts and other documents you fill out (e.g., Multiple Listing Contract, Contract of Purchase and Sale, Offer to Lease, seller's Property Disclosure Statement) and through discussions you have with the REALTOR[®] to whom you are giving this consent. Some information may be collected from other sources such as government departments and agencies (e.g., Land Title Offices, BC Assessment), financial institutions and mortgage brokers.

To whom may my personal information be disclosed?

Your information may be disclosed to (or may be accessible by) the boards and their staff and members, other REALTORS[®] and their clients, government departments and agencies, financial institutions, legal advisors, service providers, the British Columbia Real Estate Association, the Real Estate Council of British Columbia, The Canadian Real Estate Association and members of the public, for the purposes described below.

Not all of your information will be accessible to each of the above-mentioned entities. For example, once the listing term has ended, the general public will not have access to your information, unless it is otherwise available through public registries (e.g., Land Title Offices, BC Assessment).

1. PRIMARY USES

Why is my personal information collected, used and disclosed?

Your personal information may be collected, used and disclosed for some or all of the primary uses set out below.

- To allow members of real estate boards (including REALTORS[®] and appraisers) to appraise your property.
- To list/market your property on the MLS[®] System.
- To market your property through any other media (both print and electronic).
- To help you locate a suitable property to buy or lease.
- To facilitate the purchase and sale or lease transaction (by cooperating with financial institutions, legal advisors and government departments and agencies).
- To allow the boards (including REALTORS[®]) to compile current and historical statistics on sales and property prices and lease rates, and to conduct comparative market analyses. Information about your property will be retained in the MLS[®] System for these purposes after your property has sold or leased or your listing has expired (if you are a seller/landlord) and after you have purchased or leased your property (if you are a buyer/tenant).

- To enforce codes of professional conduct and ethics for REALTORS[®] (by cooperating with real estate boards, the British Columbia Real Estate Association, the Real Estate Council of British Columbia, The Canadian Real Estate Association and other regulatory bodies).
- To comply with legal requirements and to act pursuant to legal authorizations.

The above-mentioned primary uses are a necessary part of your relationship with the REALTOR[®] to whom you are giving this consent.

2. SECONDARY USES

Will my personal information be collected, used and disclosed for any other purposes?

Your personal information may also be collected, used and disclosed for the secondary uses set out below. These secondary uses are optional. If you do not want your personal information used or disclosed for any of these secondary uses, you may opt out of granting consent to any of them by initialing the "Opt Out" box(es) to the right of the secondary use(s) to which do you not want to consent.

- | | |
